Good Morning!

Well, here we are, back on the job,
We're free from pains and aches;

Said all we saw was snakes.

POLICE COURT

Some Stiff Fines Given Out—Wife Beater Gets $105.50—Bootleggers Get $55.50 Each.

Police Judge Whitaker had a full house Monday afternoon.
Marian Fultz and C. C. Burdon, loitering, given each, $6.50.

Sam Lyons, Sam Peterson and William Hoops, drunk, each $6.50.
William Vanson, disorderly conduct, $6.50.

Garfield Boyd and John Breckinridge, boot-legging, each $55.50.

Early Barr and Frances Gordon, the two young men who were handed over to justice by Dr. McGuire, furnished a pitiful scene. Barr, who is 23 years old furnished Gordon, an adopted son of Mr. W. H. Harrison, with some whisky and they stole the razors, etc., from the barber shop. Judge Whitaker fined Barr $55.50 and turned the Gordon boy over to Judge Hise who will take his case under advisement.

Cleveland Darnall got full of rot-gut whisky and wanted a pint more but his wife had hid away. She refused to give the whisky to him. He beat her up and the Judge gave him $105.50. A whipping post would be a good institution for such a man.

Try your luck at the Gem tonight.

Smashes Into Wagon With His Auto and Has Narrow Escape.

Monday morning as Rev. George W. Bunton, pastor of the Covington M. E. Church, and formerly of this city, was motoring from Mt. Olivet, where he had been officiating at a funeral, to Rutgers Campmeeting, his automobile ran into a wagon just as he reached Washington.

The impact drove the tongue of the wagon clear through Rev. Bunton's car. Fortunately the reverend gentleman was not injured, only shocked, but his machine was put out of commission for several hours until a new cylinder was brought from Maysville and installed in his car.

ALL AFRAID

European Cut Throats Dare Not Start Carnage That Would Change Map of World

Berlin, July 27.—Important conferences were held this afternoon between the German Emperor, the Imperial Chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg and the strategic head of the army and navy to determine definitely the Germany policy in the impending crisis between Austria and Serbia.

The British and French ambassadors, Sir Edward Goschen and Jules Cambon, called on the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Herr von Jagow, with communications from their governments. Authentic information has been received in Berlin that Russia is taking similar precautionary military measures. Rumors on the saving bank were made by small depositors in various parts of Germany.

These were the outstanding features of the day, despite bloodshed reported and registered a small mark in optimism regarding the situation.

The official proclamation of Russia that no mobilization of her army had been ordered was supplemented by information from Warsaw that among the precautionary military measures taken were the withdrawal of troops in Poland from the immediate frontiers of Germany and Austria for concentration in the interior; the recall of Russian troops from their summer camp and the cancelling of leave of absence of all officers. The border is watched by a semi-military force attached to the treasury department known as "frontier guards."

Crowds Watch for Emperor.

Unter Den Linden was jammed to-night with crowds which hoped that the Emperor would come to Berlin, but they were disappointed.
